BDC

1. Introduction

BDCoin is born with BitDreamCompany's vision of a decentralized, transparent and beneficial Blockchain for all its users. That is why we created our token based on our company's services, our investment portfolio, profitability systems, supported projects and our associated platforms.

Created on the Ethereum network with the ERC 20 protocol, we opened ourselves to the blockchain community with a versatile, fast and decentralized token.

With our goal to support the blockchain and its big projects we want to contribute with our small grain of sand to bring the future a little bit closer to the moment of now.

Welcome to the real, decentralized, transparent, fast and reliable blockchain.

2. Non ICO & Listing

Our token is directly listed on an decentralized, distributed & private exchange (McAfeeDex by John McAfee) and can be directly bought and sold on the exchange freely.

We do not make an initial offer (ICO) because; firstly we are not looking for capital to develop any project, our company BitDreamCompany is a company that already works and has its services, customers, platform and partners.

Therefore, BDCoin is based on a company already created and working, so we do not need or want to make an ICO, because we also understand the blockchain as being decentralized, private and free, and an ICO does not fall within these concepts or our vision.

In the future, BDC will build a decentralized exchange, where BDC will be used as one of the key base assets as well as gas to be spent.

Therefore, part of the profitability obtained from the company's investment portfolio is destined to reward the BDCoin holders with 5% per year for non-members of the platform and 10% for members of the BDCoin platform.

Dividends are paid monthly and to receive them you don't need to send or deposit your BDCoin to any other wallet we just need the address of where the BDCoin is Hold to check that they are there and that they are not moving or selling, you will receive the dividends monthly in that same wallet provided, being the deposits paid for now in Ethereum.

In order to receive the dividends there are a series of requirements or conditions that must be fulfilled, which are the following:

Annual Return:

- Members of BDC receive 8% - 10% per year / 0.66% - 0.83% per month
- Non FOC Members receive 4% - 5% per year / 0.33% - 0.416%.

- The period available to start the dividend program is from the 1st to the 15th of each month.
- If you activate the dividend program after the 15th of a month, your dividend program will become active on the 1st of the following month.
- Dividends will be deposited, less network fees, into the same portfolio where you hold BDCoin, which you must provide to us on the dividend schedule form.
- If the amount of BDCoin you hold in Hold for the dividend program falls below the minimum of 1,000 BDC on any day of the month, you will not receive the dividend in that month.
- If the amount of your BDCs falls on any day of the month, you will be paid that month based on the minimum amount in that month's portfolio.
- If the amount of your FOCs increases on any day of the month, that month will be paid on the basis of the initial amount of that month.
